Stimulating imaginations of quilt tricksters everywhere

Quiltrick #24: This tip comes from a gal who recently took my applique class. If you are storing quilts on a wooden shelf, line the shelf with aluminum foil first to protect the quilts from any oils in the wood that might stain or weaken the fibers in the fabric.

This spring is filled with travel for me – from one coast to the other and in-between. Since I won't be home to do any teaching, I have put a new tutorial on the website, "How to put in a Zipper Pocket." I hope you'll find it useful for making purses or wallets. We're working on a second video as well, but I'm sideways at the beginning, so it has to go to the film editor ☺. If you send me pictures of your "Quiltricks" creation, I would love to put them up on the Quiltricks website.

I'm thrilled to announce that one of my quilt designs will be in the upcoming issue of "Quiltmaker's 100 Blocks, Volume 5." It's called "Lyric" and I hope you'll like it! The magazine is scheduled to be available on May 8, so look for a copy at your local quilt store.

Come visit me at a quilt show near you, as I won't be home much this spring. I'll share my chocolate...
